

Etang Des Courtioux dreambreaks

Big Fish! expect the unexpected....

This picturesque and scenic lake of 12 acres, well away from traffic and main roads, is situated in the middle of the French countryside, in the beautiful "Berry" region of France.

With a maximum of 5 anglers per week, you can be assured of plenty of room to fish and the chance to play those monster French carp. And with no restrictions on bait or tactics, you are free to try out any new methods or test different baits to work some magic.

"Etang Des Courtioux" can certainly boast a good head of mirrors and commons to 50lbs plus, the

For the chance of an action packed, arm-aching, fun holiday in peaceful surroundings, with a bit of the unknown, "Etang Des Courtioux" is the place for you!

At a glance:

- Anglers – Up to 5
- Suitable – Individuals or small groups
- Location – private 12 acre lake
- Fishing – Action / Specimen
- Fish – Carp to 55 lbs
- Travel – P&O Ferry or EuroTunnel included
- From Calais - 4 to 4½ hours drive
- Arrive / Depart – Each Saturday

biggest known resident being just a tad over 55lbs. But with large numbers of 40's, 30's, 20's and high doubles this lake is heavily stocked, so plenty of action is on the cards. Who knows... maybe they come even bigger?

There are excellent facilities on site which include; a bait freezer, toilets, hot showers, and power points for phones, bait boats etc. while amenities, including a large supermarket, restaurants and local attractions, are only a few miles away.

"Etang Des Courtioux" has yet to see English anglers and its full potential has yet to be revealed, so if you fancy being one of the first to challenge this outstanding venue and catch one of these prized specimens, then give "Etang Des Courtioux" a go.

