French Fishing with a Difference

“La Brande” is set in the heart of the beautiful natural park “La Brenne” in the “Berry” countryside of France. This pretty, private lake, only 7 acres in size, holds a really good stock of common and mirror carp; with fish in excess of 53 lbs.

This exceptional venue certainly offers a French fishing holiday with a difference: as your holiday home is a chalet superbly situated on the lake itself, and virtually surrounded by water.

Sleeping a maximum of 2, guests will enjoy exclusive use of the conveniently positioned chalet which has all modern facilities including; a small kitchen area, fridge, hot shower & toilet, TV, dining table and lounge area. A boathouse is connected to the chalet and the use of a boat is included. Alternatively you are welcome to use a baitboat, if you wish.

At “La Brande” there is no need for bivvies or bedchairs, just put your rods on the veranda and fish from the comfort of your armchair! Conveniently, a supermarket, local shops and restaurants are only a few miles away.

“La Brande” could be the perfect holiday destination for you and your partner, or for two fishing friends, and is ideal for that pleasurable and stress free angling vacation.

Promising the opportunity of some excellent sport, as well as an enjoyable and relaxing break, “La Brande” provides spotless facilities and accommodation in addition to comfort and convenience. And your first class fishing is right on your doorstep...who could want for more?!
